Small Groups

Here at Bookham Baptist Church we think it's important to meet in small groups and share life together. We like to make this a priority.

There are around 20 groups which are made up from our various congregations and you are welcome to join, whether you are part of the church, visiting us, or just not sure whether the whole 'big church' thing is for you yet.

For information about small groups, contact Nikki.watts@virginmedia.com
