Word/ Read & Reflect	Begin in silence, welcoming the Holy Spirit to guide you. If you haven't already read the passage read it now and then be silent. Read again. Be silent once more, attentive to the Spirit. Share out of this experience... <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What scriptures are prompted in your thinking? 2. Do any particular Biblical truths stand out? 3. Is there anything that you don't understand? If time, consider some of the following questions... <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why does Peter preach (speak) to the crowd? Are you compelled to preach (speak) of Jesus in the same manner? 2. How are you becoming more open to the Holy Spirit using you to speak about Jesus & his resurrection? 3. Peter speaks about the central truth of the Christian faith. What is this truth & what difference does it make to our lives? 4. The resurrection changes everything. It is the divine crescendo. It is where the impossible becomes possible. If the resurrection is true ... what else does it enable us to understand is true?
Working it out	Pray for resurrection life to come through Alpha Pray for a sense of coming alive in the communities of Bookham, Cobham & Leatherhead Pray for resurrection in your work places - perhaps a resurrection of Christian ethics & values
Extra	Has your view of the resurrection faded over the years? If it has why not seek prayer ministry asking that it be renewed in your thinking and experience.
